

ANNE E. LAMA-LEWIS, LCSW

Education: Fordham University, New York City, NY, 9/1997
Masters of Social Work
Westchester Institute for the Study of Psychotherapy & Psychoanalysis
Certification in psychotherapy with children & adolescents

Experience: 4/2007 – Present, Pathways Counseling Center, Spring Hill, FL.
Individual and family psychotherapy, inclusive of adults and children, substance abuse, women's issues, play therapy and ADHD.

12/2006 – Present, Spring Brook Psychiatric Hospital, Spring Hill, FL.
Conduct group and individual psychotherapy with a diverse population of adults in an outpatient program for the mentally ill.

2/2005 – Present, Visiting Nurse Association, Hernando County, FL.
Conduct in-home assessments of geriatric population, conduct short-term therapy, complete reports of the patients' living conditions and needs, and make referrals to nursing homes or ALFs as needed.

1/2005 – 12/2006, The Harbor Behavioral Health Care Institute, Brooksville, FL.
Conducted psychotherapy with children and families; managed the sexual abuse program for sexually abused children and their non-offending caretakers.

4/2005 – 1/2006, MHM Health Contractors, Raiford, FL.
Conducted clinical assessments of inmates at Union Correctional Institute; conducted groups for sexual offenders and the mainstream population.

4/1997 – 12/2004, New Beginnings Mental Health Clinic, New York.
Implemented, developed and supervised the child and adolescent therapeutic program, geared towards the children of the adults in rehabilitation from substance abuse, conducted groups for HIV, domestic violence, sexual offenders and parenting.

9/1992 – 12/2004, New York City Fire Department. New York, NY.
Processed emergency calls, determined level of response, dispatched, conducted crisis work, linkage to services for victims. Provided post 9-11 trauma and grief therapy for individuals and families of victims.

Licensure and Certification:

Licensed Clinical Social Worker, 1998