

MATTHEW L. FOX, Med, LMHC

Education: Master of Education, University of North Texas, 1996
Bachelor of Science, Texas Christian University, 2988

Experience: 2/2006 – Present, Pathways Counseling Center, Spring Hill, FL.
Private practice, substance abuse, mental health and couples counseling

3/2005 - Present, The Harbor Behavioral Health Care Institute, Brooksville, FL.
Substance-abuse counselor, currently working with voluntary and court-mandated adolescents and adults, individual and group counseling

6/2004 - 3/2005, Agency for Community Treatment Services, Thonotosassa, FL.
Lead therapist, individual, group and family therapy with voluntary and court-mandated adolescents

8/2000 - 6/2004, Brien Center for Mental Health, Pittsfield MA.
Substance-abuse counselor, individual and group counseling, public school substance-abuse education, clinic-based substance-abuse groups, Berkshire Batterers Program group facilitator

1/1999 - 8/2000, Adolescent Substance Abuse Program, Athens, GA.
Program coordinator, set up 13-county adolescent substance-abuse program, including curriculum.

8/1999- 1/1999, University of Georgia Health Center, Athens, GA.
Health educator, assessed students with campus-related alcohol offenses, conducted alcohol and drug educational groups, individual and group counseling

1996 - 1999, Hidden Lake Academy, Dahlonega, GA., Addictions counselor, developed and facilitated an 18-month residential alcohol and drug-abuse program for oppositional defiant adolescents

Licensure and Certification:

Certified Addictions Professional, Florida, May 2005
Licensed Mental Health Counselor, Florida, June 2004